Dear Sir or Madam,

On behalf of the Management Board, I am pleased to present the financial statement of POL-MOT Warfama S.A. for the 2011.

Revenues from the sale of the company POL-MOT Warfama S.A. amounted to PLN 159 845 thousand and were higher by 43% of revenue in 2010. The main reason of the growth was increase agricultural machinery and equipment sales, both domestically and abroad. A significant increase in export sales (by 50% compared to 2010) was due to improvement in the situation of the agricultural sector in foreign markets. 5. Description of significant risks and dangers with definition of the level of their impact on the Issuer.

Factors of risk related to the Issuer, his branch and the environment where the Issuer operates:

5.1. Risk of margins reduction

A possible strengthening of the competition on the market can cause the aggressive sales strategies by the Issuer's competitors. In such situation it can be possible that the competitors will reduce their margins on the products which quality and price are similar to those offered by the Issuer. It can result in a necessity of margins reduction by the Issuer, what can negatively influence the revenues and results. The Issuer, counteracting a potential risk, uses the production scale effect and diversifies raw materials deliveries with in order to control the margin level and resist a potential loss of market share.

5.2. Risk of dependence on key customers

Loss of key customers can negatively influence the financial position and results of the Company operating on the competitive market. In case of the strategic customers of the Issuer the risk is limited because of the previous cooperation in frames of the dealer agreement and joint elaboration of quality standards of the products. According to the Issuer, a long-term cooperation limits the risk of losing such customers.

The company Bioenergia Invest SA has regular suppliers and has signed cooperation agreements in the field of production and supplies of briquettes and the lease. The company has also signed an agreement with the power plants to secure the continuous reception of produced briquettes. According to the Issuer, the long-term contracts reduce the risk of losing these customers.

5.3. Risk related to scientific and development research of new products

A strong competition is the reason why the companies still have to modernize and implement new technological solutions in their products. The pressure put by the competition makes it necessary to incur expenses for research and development aimed at elaboration of better products adapted to needs and requirements of the customers. Implementation by the Company of a wrong research and development policy can lead in the future to the situation where the products are less modern than the products of the competition. At the same time it is not sure that all expenses for research and development will contribute to an increase of revenues and profits of the Company.

In the presence of the agriculture development in Poland, the Issuer pursues a policy aimed at introduction of technological modifications in the produced machines and offering products fulfilling individual needs of customers.

5.4. Risk of rotation/ loss of the key staff

The strong position of the Issuer on the market is connected with the stability of employment of the specialized staff of Company, as well as the production workers (welders, metal workers, turners). According to the Issuer, skills improvement of the employees and all activities aimed at their appropriate motivation should result in a better cooperation with the customers and suppliers and influence the quality of the products.

5.5. Risk related to the temporary production suspension

The temporary production suspension caused by a possible devastation or loss of a part or the entire fixed assets or lack of the production continuity resulting from prolonged machines failures or black outs can cause missing deadlines of execution of some orders placed by the customers. Worsening of the quality standards of the customers services and delays in the orders execution can lead to a decrease in participation of the Issuer on the market and thus to worsening of the financial results and the decrease in sales of the Issuer. The above mentioned phenomenon is not likely to happen.

5.6. Risk related to the macroeconomic situation of Poland – economic prosperity of the country

The macroeconomic situation of Poland, especially the growth rate of GDP, is one of the most important factors that can impact the financial results of the Issuer. The stabilization of economic growth in 2011 expressed by GDP, and growth rate of investment demand positively affected the Company's operations. The projected decline in economic situation in Poland in the next year may have a negative impact on the Company's financial results during this period. Negative impact on the Company's financial results may have worsened situation in agriculture and availability of credits.

5.7. Risk related to planned capital investments

Realization of the planned investment depends on the stability of the market environment. There is a risk that the expenses incurred for a particular purpose can be insufficient, and implementation of projects can be difficult despite the utmost diligence of the Issuer. Besides, any organizational and legal problems can bring returns on capital different than expected. To minimize a possibility of such a risk, the Issuer, before making a decision of a capital investment, carries out an economic analysis of the undertaking.

5.8. Risk related to increased competition on the market of agricultural machinery manufacturers

On the market of agricultural machinery manufacturers there is a strong competition among companies from Poland and from other countries. Any competition increase and an entry on the Polish market of strong international manufacturers can consequently influence negatively the Issuer's operation and his financial results. The Company, with a view to reducing the impact of such a risk on his results, by implementation of his strategic objectives, focuses activities on improvement of the products and getting new orders from international contractors. The Issuer takes actions in the field of widening its offer to face the customers' expectations.

5.9. Risk of exchange rate

In the execution of orders the Issuer makes purchases of materials and products which value is expressed in Euro. To minimize this risk, in 2009 the supplying of raw material was centralized by setting a new entity responsible for monitoring the market price of all raw materials (especially steel price) and making orders to all divisions.

POL-MOT Warfama SA purchases of goods in the EUR currency, while approximately 23% of sales are generated by exports in foreign currencies, primarily in EUR currency.

The Management Board continually monitors the exposure to foreign exchange risk of the company, estimates its impact on the company's financial results and in the event of an excessive concentration considers the introduction of hedging exposure.

5.10. Risk of lack of utilization of EU funds for agriculture modernization by farmers

Since 2007 in frames of the UE funds for farmers the Program of Agricultural Areas Development (PROW) for the years 2007-2013 has been functioning. In case of delays in the launch of the next stages of the program, as well as in the case of the emergence of organizational and procedural difficulties on submitting applications, farms may not take advantage of opportunities to finance the investment from UE funds. The Management Board is still monitoring the situation of the PROW program implementation. In case of delays with the Program funds payment, the risk of a lower demand for agricultural machinery and equipment in that period should be taken in consideration, which undoubtedly will influence the financial results of the Issuer.

5.11. Risk of increase of prices of basic raw materials used by the Issuer in production

Steel is the major raw material used by the Company in the production activities. Steel prices are vulnerable to economic trends, increase in the periods of dynamic economic growth and fall in the periods of worsening of the prosperity. At the beginning of 2011 there was an upward trend, while the rest of the year the steel prices declined, and consequently in the whole 2011 year, there was a slight drop of steel prices. Increased volatility of steel prices has a significant impact on the company's financial results.

6. Information about basic products and services with their value and quantity description and participation of particular products and services (if relevant) or groups of them in the total sales of the Company, and changes hereof in the reporting period.
